

First-Year Honors Program

New Student Orientation
Summer 2021

Welcome to the Honors Program!

- Honors is a wonderful way to personalize your Iowa State education.
- Congratulations on joining the Iowa State Honors family!

Who's Who in Honors

- Laurie Smith Law
- Emily Wilcox
- Laura Good
- Molly Helmers
- Suzanne Wirth
- Dr. Svitlana Zbarska
- Gene Newgaard
- Undergraduate Assistants Aline, Nick, and Jordan

Who are Honors students?

FHP is a community of 450 first-year students from every college at Iowa State

How is Honors different from the rest of the university?

- “Honors experience”: smaller classes, research and leadership opportunities, study abroad service trips
- MORE work vs. DIFFERENT work
- Honors components + your program of study
- Facilities! Community! Experiences!
- Honors expectations

What is the First-Year Honors Program (FHP)?

- Community of 450 First-Year students
- Goals and objectives:
 - Academic
 - Social
 - Personal
- Designed to assist in your transition to ISU
- Separate from University Honors Program

FHP at a glance:

- 3 linked courses in the fall semester
 - Honors 121
 - English 250H
 - Library 160
- First-Year Mentor Program in the spring semester

Honors 121

- 10-12 students per class
- 1 credit seminar class, meets twice a week, pass/fail basis
- Led by 2 upper division Honors students
- Each section has its own theme
- Common Reading Program: get Station Eleven from your local library or bookstore
- One-time-only $60.00 program fee

English 250H

- WOVE curriculum: written, oral, visual, and electronic composition
- Humanities based, critical thinking
- Common English 250H credit questions:
 - Have AP credit? Your AP credit will only cover English 150 (or in some cases will cover a literature elective), so it cannot be used for English 250H
 - If you have college-level credit for English 150/250, please tell Suzanne – you also must enroll in a different Honors course or seminar for the fall semester
 - You CANNOT test out of English 250H

Library 160

- Introduction to Parks Library's resources
- Required for all first-year students
- 1 credit, graded pass/fail
- Paired with the Honors 121 seminar
 - You must register for LIB 160, Section 1
 - If you are bringing in credit, please let Honors know

First-Year Mentor Program

- Spring semester research opportunity
- Partnership with a faculty member
- Variety of interests and subjects from fashion design to nanoparticles
- Explore your major or something else you're interested in
- Work in a team or on an individual project

Other Honors Courses

- Often limited to 25 students
- Hands-on, in-depth classroom environment
- Chance to enhance your education
- Engineering students: ask your advisor!

Honors Seminars

- Usually limited to 17 students
- Seminars still open for this fall include:
 - Vaccines: how they're developed and how they work
 - Dystopia and Environmental Politics
 - Conflicts in the Middle East
 - Sketchnoting: learn to take visual notes and develop your own visual voice
- Check the Honors website for a full list of Fall '21 seminars

Other Opportunities and Benefits

- 24-hour access to the Jischke Honors Building
- Next spring, early course registration
- Increased credit limit (21+ credits)
- Library privileges
- Honors Salons, professional development activities
- International experiences: service learning in Belize
- Graduate-level courses
- Honors Student Board

Honors Housing

Honors houses:

- Barton Hall, Anders House
- Lyon Hall, Harwood House
- Martin Hall, Starbuck House

Honors clusters:

- Friley Hall, Lorch-Russell House
- Geoffroy Hall, Day and Ebbers Houses

Check with Suzanne to be put on the waitlist*

A Year in the Life of FHP

August '21

September '21

- Mid-August: formal sorority recruitment, Destination Iowa State, move-in to residence halls
- 22: FHP Kickoff Picnic
- 23: Fall Classes begin

- 2: HSB Ice Cream Social
- 6: Labor Day Holiday

October '21

November '21

- FHP Retreat
- Mentor program is introduced to students
- Middle of October: Midterms
- 23: Homecoming vs. Oklahoma State

- Beginning: registration for Spring '22 classes
- 22-26: Thanksgiving Break – no classes

December '21

January '22

- 6: Prep Week begins
- 13: Finals Week begins
- 17: Semester ends

- 17: Martin Luther King Jr. Holiday/Day of Service
- 18: Spring classes begin
- Mentor program begins
- Deadline to apply for University Honors Program

February '22

March '22

- It's snowy and bleak

- Beginning of March: Midterms
- 14-18: Spring Break (start thinking about the service trip to Belize in 2023)
- Registration for Fall '22 classes

April '22

May '22

- The actual busiest month of the year with end-of-year activities and research poster presentations

- 2: Prep Week begins
- 9: Finals Week begins
- 13: Families, you can reclaim your student!

Orientation Checklist:

- Register for:
 - Honors 121
 - English 250H
 - Library 160 (Section 1)
- Check your ISU email address regularly
- Read Station Eleven
- Get excited!

If you make changes to your schedule and cannot get back into one of the FHP courses, contact the Honors Office immediately.*

Haven't submitted these? Today is the day!

- Honors acceptance forms (yellow sheets)
- English 250 or Library 160 credit forms
- Your ISU net ID to Suzanne!

SAVE THE DATE!

FHP KICKOFF

Come for the free food, stay to meet your Honors section!

Sunday,
August 22
5 pm

SAVE THE DATE!

HSB'S ICE

CREAM SOCIAL

Join your Honors section and start the year off right with the HSB ice cream social – find out what HSB does and how you can get connected.

Thursday,
September 2

hsb

SAVE THE DATE...when we figure out what that is!

FHP RETREAT

Past retreat activities have included bonfires, walking tacos, Olympics-style games, trivia competitions, glow-in-the-dark ultimate frisbee, Honors Idol, cookie decorating, the Honors Amazing Race, swing dancing, childhood regression activities, tons of glow sticks, bingo, Real Life Clue, lots of snacks, skits via TikTok, Family Feud, line dancing, charades, and human foosball broom hockey! We'll let you know when we have a date!

TBA

(sorry!)

Connect with us (for a sticker for your laptop/water bottle)!

Iowa State Honors Program

@ISUHonors

@iowastatehonors

#exCYted4FHP

Questions?

Emily Wilcox

515-294-4371

eawilcox@iastate.edu